Dugdale's

Visitation of Porkshire,

WITH ADDITIONS.

EDITED BY

J. W. CLAY, F.S.A.

VOLUME III.

Exeter:

WILLIAM POLLARD & Co. Ltd., THE PRINTING WORKS.
1917.

This third volume completes the edition of "Dugdale's Visitation" which was begun to be printed in The Genealogist, vol. ix, 1893, and has continued in that magazine in all the years since. The original Visitation as in the Surtees Society, vol. xxxvi, has been faithfully copied with the exception of the long pedigree of Talbot of Thorneton, which mostly belongs to Lancashire, and when there are two branches of the same family they have been amalgamated to avoid repetition.

It has been a larger work than originally intended, when the scheme was to see what had become of the families who appeared before Dugdale. The editor has been tempted to extend that idea and to carry the pedigrees further back, and in many cases to include the Visitations of Tonge, Flower and Glover.

As there are about 470 pedigrees in these volumes, it is not surprising that some mistakes may have occurred, the different authorities not always being correct, so that the Addenda should be consulted to see what has been observed.

Since the commencement of the work many more sources of information have become available, such as the further indexes of the Wills at York and Somerset House, the further printed Parish Registers, the works of the Surtees, Harleian and Thoresby Societies, and other local histories, from which some additions are also in the Addenda.

The editor regrets that many of the gentlemen who helped him at the beginning have passed away, as Lords Amherst and Hawkesbury, the Rev. C. B. Norcliffe, Dr. Sykes, Mr. Cokayne, Mr. Creyke, Mr. G. W. Thomlinson. He has to thank those still living, too numerous to mention, as well as those clergy who have permitted him to see their registers. He only hopes that, notwithstanding its defects, this work contains fresh matter which may be useful to interested enquirers.

¹ There is very little information to be obtained about the early part of this family. It was carly settled at Milford and Molescroft, near Beverley, and there was also a branch at Wappingthorn, in Sussex, which came into Yorkshire by the marriage of Marie, heiress of Thomas Leeds, of Milford, and so continued the line.

It would almost seem that the place Hopenthorne, entered by Dugdale, must mean Wappingthorn, eo. Sussex.

There is a will at York of William Ledes, of Mollescroft, gentleman, dated Sept. 4, 1436, who left a son and heir Robert, but what connection he had with the first Richard does not appear.

¹ Francis Mounteuey appears to have left Rotherham, and there seems to be no further information about him. Mr. Hunter in "Hallamshire," p. 393, suggests that his son Richard may have been the Richard Mounteney who lived at Kew or Richmond, and was in the Customs, during in 1707, his will being dated 25 Sept., proved 20 Oct. 1707 (Polsy, 233) in London, father (or more probably grandfather) of Richard Mounteney, Barno of the Exchequer in Ireland, whose life is in the "Dictionary of National Biography," but the Richmond Registers and the will in 1707 do not favour this idea.

Nore—Both families of Stable and Stables were wide spreading in Pontefract and the neighbourhood (the registers being full of them), and there being so many Williams and Leonards it is difficult to continue the pedigree further. There were branches at a later date at Hemsworth and Huddersfield who claim to descend from that at Pontefract, but where they are likely to have joined it is not easy to determine.
